KALAKAUA DAY TO BE OBSERVED FOR FIRST TIME

Morning Reception, Appearance of Pa-u Riders and Dance at Night Make Up Program

In honor of the Kalakaua dynasty which ruled over the Hawaiian Islands for 22 years, Honolulu will celebrate tomorrow, and the day will be filled with many pleasant features.

The big affair of the day will occur in the evening when the reception and ball at the armory will be held. Because of the illness of Queen Liliuokalani, she will not be able to attend, but in her place Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole and Princess Kawanakoa will receive the guests. After the reception three orchestras will furnish music for the dancing and a gala time is anticipated. A large number of invitations have been issued and to be sure that no one was overlooked Princess Kawanakoa, chairman of the invitation committee, wishes all who have not received invitations to go to the Promotion Committee rooms on Bishop street.

The festivities of the day will begin in the morning when 21 pa-u riders will gather at the Princess Auto Stand on King street and from there, headed by Princess Theresa Wilcox, president and wife of the first delegate to congress, and Mrs. J. Fern, vice-president, will march up King street to Aiea park. From there the march will return on King and up Fort to Hotel, then Bishop, King and up Richards to the residence of Queen Liliuokalani, where a short call will be made. From the queen's residence the riders will follow Beretania street to Pensacola street to the home of Princess Kawanakoa, where a reception will be held from 9 to 12 in the morning. Here a short speech will be made by a member of the riders. In the evening the pa-u riders will attend the ball in full costume of royal purple with leis around their necks and a golden band on which is the word "Kaohela," the name of a descendant of the royal house of Keoua, the father of the Kamehamehas.

The reception of Princess Kawanakoa is for Hawaiians only and therefore no one else will be permitted inside the grounds unless they have a special invitation.

GEN. STRONG TO HEAD AERO CLUB, NEW PRESIDENT

Brig-Gen. Frederick S. Strong, new commander of the Hawaiian Department, U. S. Army, was elected president of the Aero Club of Hawaii at a meeting of the board of governors at army headquarters yesterday.

The retirement of Gen. Robert K. Evans, one of the founders of the young organization and its president, necessitated the election of a successor and Gen. Strong was the unanimous choice of the governors. He had been elected to the board of governors a short time ago.

Vice-President Forbes presided at the meeting of the governors yesterday. Gen. Strong proved himself just as enthusiastic a supporter of aviation in Hawaii and of the club's activities as Gen. Evans, when, in a brief, emphatic talk after his election, he declared himself in hearty sympathy with the past action and plans for the future of the aero club. Another new governor, Capt. George R. Clark, commandant at the Naval Station, Pearl Harbor, was also present and made a talk showing his interest and enthusiasm.

SPECIAL MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT AT HEINIE'S

For the special entertainment of the passengers and officers of the Great Northern there will be an added musical feature this evening at Heinie's Tavern, "on the beach at Waikiki." "Dude" Miller's Hui Nalu Glee Club, the local boys who recently set Broadway raving about their Hawaiian music in the big musical comedy hit of the season, "Stop, Look and Listen," will also furnish dancing music with the regular orchestra this evening. This will be quite a treat for everybody and their appearance here should make a bigger hit than it did in "Little Old New York." Miss Jewel Estes will also star as usual with her delightful songs and ballads.

An exceptionally fine menu will be served and reservation should be made early. Local society and army and navy folk are also most cordially invited to attend and bring their friends.

For the Thanksgiving Table

Blest be those feasts with simple plenty crown'd,
Where all the ruddy family 'round
Laugh at the jests or pranks that never fail.

—Goldsmith.

THANKSGIVING DAY, whether it be one with simple or elaborate plenty crowned, is about the oldest of the purely American Holidays.

As a fiesta day of patriotic importance, it is regarded as a time when a bounteous plenty shall signalize the dinner as one long to be remembered.
